1. 社会快速发展

Today's labor market is much more complicated than in the past, as technological advances are destroying and creating jobs at an unprecedented rate. In light of this, it would be imprudent to look in the rear view mirror to see what a so-called stable job used to be. As artificial intelligence and machine learning progress, jobs such as truck drivers and accountants are in danger of being phased out.

2. 无人驾驶汽车

Driverless car technology is advancing at breakneck speed, and it does not take a leap of the imagination to see how it will change cities and public transportation systems. The shortcomings of self-driving pale into insignificance when set against the great benefits it will bring to us--- a plunge in road accidents and less pollution.

Indeed, during the past centuries, the development of human society is growing beyond everyone's recognition. In the end, Homo sapience are annihilated from chronicles of the earth.

They may pick up smoking to be better liked by more popular peers, or out of fear of losing friends who have already taken up the habit. Second, teenagers are at an impressionable age where they can be easily influenced by adults. Some of them start smoking by imitating adult figures or role models, such as their parents, older siblings, and even celebrities.

6. 友谊维护

Maintaining a long-term relationship is no small task, but the best policy is to be honest and straightforward. This is because once you lie, it takes another story to make it work, which, unfortunately, will come out in the open sooner or later. The will on one hand erode your credibility, and on the other hand makes it difficult to mend the fences and restore mutual trust. However, if your friend choose to confess to you to win you back, you'd better give it a try since it takes a great courage and determination to own up to mistakes.

7. 实际就业技能

It is now nearly axiomatic that a college diploma can hardly ensure a stable job in today's cutting-throat job market. Actually, in the quest to find the best candidate, many companies now realize that they have to look beyond academic background and work experiences. The strong suits of being resilient and versatile are must-have qualities for job hunters. These intangible traits play a more significant role in opening up job prospects.

8. 成功品质与坚韧不拔

Running up against setbacks is a sure thing. However, what differentiate common people with successful people is the attitude towards hardship. Those who are able to keep a positive outlook and keep on experimenting and exploring tactics and hacks when reality doesn't measure up to expectation are more likely to rise above obstacles in tough spot. On the other end of the scale stood people who resort to games, alcohol or drugs to escape from frustrating reality, which makes it difficult for them to bounce back from the pitfall.
